F. All Other Contingencies

In March 2016, Anthem filed a lawsuit against its vendor for pharmacy benefit management services, captioned Anthem, Inc. v. Express Scripts, Inc., in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York. The lawsuit seeks to recover damages for pharmacy pricing that is higher than competitive benchmark pricing, damages related to operational breaches and seeks various declarations under the agreement between the parties. Anthem's suit asserts that Express Scripts, Inc.'s ("Express Scripts") current pricing exceeds the competitive benchmark pricing required by the agreement over the remaining term of the agreement and through the post-termination transition period. Further, Anthem believes that Express Scripts' excessive pricing has caused Anthem to lose existing customers and prevented the Company from gaining new business. In addition to the amounts associated with competitive benchmark pricing, Anthem is seeking damages associated with operational breaches incurred to date, together with a declaratory judgment that Express Scripts: (1) breached its obligation to negotiate in good faith and to agree in writing to new pricing terms; (2) is required to provide competitive benchmark pricing to Anthem through the term of the agreement; (3) has breached the agreement, and that Anthem can terminate the agreement either due to Express Scripts' breaches or because Anthem has determined that Express Scripts' performance with respect to the delegated Medicare Part D functions has been unsatisfactory; and (4) is required under the agreement to provide post-termination services, at competitive benchmark pricing, for one year following any termination. In April 2016, Express Scripts filed an answer to the lawsuit disputing Anthem's contractual claims and alleging various defenses and counterclaims. Express Scripts contends that Anthem breached the agreement by failing to negotiate proposed new pricing terms in good faith and that Anthem breached the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing by disregarding the terms of the transaction. In addition, Express Scripts is seeking declaratory judgments: (1) regarding the timing of the periodic pricing review under the agreement; (2) that it has no obligation to ensure that Anthem receives any specific level of pricing, that Anthem has no contractual right to any change in pricing under the agreement and that its sole obligation is to negotiate proposed pricing terms in good faith; and (3) that Anthem does not have the right to terminate the agreement. In the alternative, Express Scripts claims that Anthem has been unjustly enriched by its payment of $4.675 billion at the time of the agreement. Anthem believes that Express Scripts' defenses and counterclaims are without merit. Anthem intends to vigorously pursue these claims and defend against any counterclaims; however, the ultimate outcome cannot be presently determined.
